

God's Wife

behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it

There is a heavenly doorway, which Esther and I have ventured through, opening up a vista that we have not seen before (or at least not clearly.) It is a level of intimacy with God we didn't even know was possible. It is, perhaps, the point of all creation. We, the Bride of Christ are to be the wife of God.

In the first century A.D. our Father demonstrated the union of God and man when the Holy Spirit overshadowed Mary. As a young virgin betrothed to Joseph, Mary found herself with child by God. This holy offspring, Jesus, was the result of the creator of the heavens and earth impregnating a human woman. This, our Creator, thought was proper and good in His sight.

The union of God and man

The point, though, of the way in which the second Adam came forth, is that God united with Mary physically. A sperm impregnating an ovum is the very definition of the end product of love-making. Moreover, since God is the creator of that whole process, He is intimately familiar with how it works and why He designed it that way.

If you believe you are the Bride of Christ, it is time to realize that the marriage supper of the Lamb ends up in love-making with our Creator. If that were not the case then God would not use that motif of a bride and a marriage supper as a representation of what takes place. Those who eschew intimacy, when it comes to God, are acting like a girl who refuses to kiss her husband on their wedding day. In fact, if you are truly God's intended the desire to be one with your lover should be overwhelming at this point.

The children of God go astray

The way that God brings forth His children is through mating with Spiritual Connections as they become one with each other during sexual intercourse. The resulting offspring of those types of unions are literally the Children of God. Therefore, this is where the Devil tried to mess up God's plan for mankind. It is written,

"And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years."

Genesis 6:1-3

The sons of God were those of the lineage of Adam. Those who were the daughters of men were of the lineage of Cain. Though Adam and Eve fell through sin, after the birth Seth's son Enos, men began to call upon the name of the Lord and seek His face once again. God says,

"And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men to call upon the name of the Lord"

Genesis 4:2

Why God destroyed the world through a flood

What actually precipitated the flood was the mixture of those two lines. When the sons of God, those who worshiped Him, began to marry the daughters of Cain God said,

"...My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years."

Genesis 6:3

When we marry outside the will of our Father that we wreck His plan. When those of the lineage of Seth intermarried with the lineage of Cain, our Father felt His only option was to destroy the Earth and start over with Noah.

I said that to say this, if the whole Earth was destroyed over people marrying contrary to God's will, how dare we marry those our Lord does not foreordain? When we do, we mess up our lives and the future of our children and we mess up God's will and design for this world. In our day and age, just like in the days of Noah, marrying contrary to YHWH's ends in destruction. However, in our case, it is not a destruction of water, but of fire.

The wife of the Almighty

God created mankind to be His wife. We are called the Bride of Christ. Jesus is God incarnate, and we, as his body, are God incarnate too. A wife's role, as evidenced by Eve, is to be a mother and a helpmate to her husband. We, taken as a whole, are to be the mother of all living in the world to come and a helpmate to God, bringing forth after His kind throughout eternity. God destines us to literally populate the stars of heaven in His new creation. The children of the Most High worship Him through an infinite number of sons and daughters spread across an boundless cosmos He creates anew.

What we are experiencing now is a titanic struggle for the destiny of God's chosen mate. We are Seraphim of this creation. Satan, in his malevolence, desires to kill us through damning our souls to hell with Him. Therefore, God sent Christ, the first-born of many brethren, to redeem us. God's mate is who we actually are and this is the destiny Satan tries to keep us from fulfilling.

Become one with God

We mate with God through mating with each other. As we join in the flesh, God joins with us and we become one in Him as His wife. This is what all love songs, in their basic form, allude to when they sing about love being eternal, or heaven being a place on Earth. Therefore, although the truth is all around us, we lack perspective and anointing to see it. Mating is, in fact, the point of this creation. Literally everything in creation mates, because God wanted to make sure we understand He wants to mate.

With this is mind, reading through John chapter 15 and 17, we grasp the true depth of what Christ is talking about. No longer separating physical intimacy from worship, we love fully as God intended. Our idea of a pure relationship with God is updated to include the physical too. We learn that God always intended loving Him to be as deeply physical as it is spiritual. In fact, love-making in the Garden of Eden was the highest expression of worship possible.

If God kisses you, the Earth moves

Today, in many churches, manifestations (physical effects) of the Spirit are discouraged (if not outright banned). Ministers fear anything that looks remotely unseemly. Thus they fall into the trap of rejecting intimacy among believers even if it is Spirit led. This deprives God of the physical expression He created us for in the first place. The aim of Satan is to rob God of the love He wants to receive and give through His people.

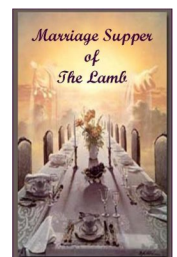

The great apostasy is primarily a negative reaction to Divine Love. Many Christians are predisposed to reject all forms of intimacy. Thus when God moves upon His people to love one another in pure ways that "look like" sin, the majority will reject God's Spirit. This is the tail of the Beast that very few see coming. Rebuffing Divine Love is the unexpected thing that causes a third of the stars to fall from heaven.

The apostle Paul says,

"Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual."

1 Corinthians 2:13

In conclusion, understand that God leads and guides us through His Spirit and not through our natural minds. In order to receive the current word we must learn to hear His voice and trust what He says above what we think is right. None of these truths are all that difficult to embrace and benefit from, but they do require a degree of trust and acceptance of God's voice that most do not want to experience. We become able to hear only as we are willing to obey. Submission is the key to everything in God and only those who will put aside their own will and accept His will can truly see.

Finally, Divine Love is a far deeper and more expansive than anything this Earth has to offer.

Divine Love is, in fact, as infinite as God Himself. Embrace God as He desires to be loved. As a wife yields to Her husband, we, the wife of God, yield to the advances of our lover. Do not fear physical manifestations for they are the natural by-product of our Lord's spiritual love. Of course we are going to have reactions to the intimate advances of our Creator. It is, in fact, the most natural thing in the whole Universe.
